PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 107th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

Vol. 148

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, MAY 16, 2002

No. 63

House of Representatives

The House met at 10 a.m.

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer:

Lord God, our guardian and protector, guide and bless all the Members of the House of Representatives this day. Together may they exercise all in their power to assure the security of our homeland; and as individuals may they model good leadership for all who work in public service on behalf of the citizens of this great Nation.

Lord, we praise You and we thank You for all the men and women You have called to serve as police and law enforcement officers throughout the States and the District of Columbia. Renew them in their commitment and protect them as they strive to guarantee safety, order and equal justice in their communities.

Reward with eternal life and Your saving presence all those who in the past year have made the ultimate sacrifice of offering their lives in the effort to serve others. Console and provide for the families of officers fallen but not forgotten.

Surround with a special blessing today each member of the Capitol Police and Secret Service, and answer their prayers. They stand tall and are honored here as our vanguard of protection in the face of terrorism. Be with them, Lord, now and forever. Amen.
